• B.A. with majors in Music, Art History, Art & Design, Theatre, Television and Media Arts
• B.F.A. in Visual Arts
• M.A. in Jazz History and Research
• M.F.A. in Creative Writing

For information on these programs:
• http://mfa.newark.rutgers.edu/
• http://andromeda.rutgers.edu/gradnwk/jazz/
• http://acm.newark.rutgers.edu/

That Rutgers’ Dana Library in Newark is home to the Institute for Jazz Studies (IJS), the largest jazz archive in the world? Visit IJS online for videos, photos, and web features on our country’s great jazz history.

That Rutgers in Newark is home to an outstanding collection of contemporary art by New Jersey artists? Plan your tour with the Guide to the Art Galleries and Collections at Rutgers University, Newark.

(www.newark.rutgers.edu/arts/art_collection_2010.pdf)

Study the arts at Rutgers-Newark

DID YOU KNOW?

• Paul Robeson Galleries
• Friends of Music at Rutgers-Newark
• Rutgers-Newark MFA
• Rutgers-NJIT Theatre Arts Programs

STUDY THE ARTS AT RUTGERS-NEWARK

PASSPORT
TO THE ARTS

Office of Communications
Rutgers University
249 University Ave.
Newark, NJ 07102

http://www.arts.rutgers.edu

WINTER-SPRING 2012

RUrGeTS UNIveRSItY , NeWARK

PASSPORT

TO THE ARTS

Programs and dates are subject to change.
Experience a full season of mostly free events in the visual and performing arts at Rutgers University in Newark. Rutgers is located in downtown Newark, just five minutes from the New Jersey Performing Arts Center, two minutes from the Newark Museum, and a quick walk from NJ Transit’s Penn or Broad Street stations and Newark Light Rail stops.

www.newark.rutgers.edu/arts

FALL–SPRING 2012

JAZZ STUDIES

Rou Roundtables
Jazz Research Roundtables, presented by the Institute of Jazz Studies
Dana Room, 4th floor, Dana Library
Jan. 19, 7 pm
Gretchen Michelson:
Harry Connick Jr.: When Entertainment Meets Art
Feb. 16, 7 pm
Susheel Kurien:
Jazz in India—Uncovering the Story
March 23, 7 pm
Josh Dufee:
Chauncery Morehouse
April 13, 7 pm
Charlie Lester:
Jazz Migration

MUSIC AND DANCE

March 28, 12:30 pm
Dana Room, 4th floor, Dana Library
Celebrating Irish Music and Women’s History with Bardic Traditions and an all-female band
Dana Room, 4th floor, Dana Library
April 4, 12:30 pm
Elizabeth Miller and Friends
perform piano duets by
Brahms, Chopin, Schumann
exhibitions
at the Paul Robeson Galleries.
Exhibitions are free and open to the public.
May 10–23, 2012
Graphic Design Senior Portfolio Exhibition
Annual show displaying works to be included in the professional portfolios of graphic designers in the Department of Arts, Culture & Media.
May 19–23, 2012
Graphic Design Senior Portfolio Exhibition
Annual show displaying works to be included in the professional portfolios of graphic designers in the Department of Arts, Culture & Media.

Low Res Image

Dharma Jazz—india jazz collaborative quartet, with Badi Rich, tabla; Freddie Bryant, guitar; Paul Lewis Porter, piano and synthesizer; Kathleen Virdee, percussion.
February 16, 8:30 pm
Dana Room, 4th floor, Dana Library

Saxophone All-Stars: Jan Session with saxophonists D.L. Leonard Brown, Ray Blue, John Petrucci, Prof. Lewis Porter, keyboards, bassist, tenor, and Obed Taylor, drums.
March 2, 8:30 pm
Dana Room, 4th floor, Dana Library

March 1, 12:30–3:50 pm
Paul Robeson Gallery
NJIt Bradley Hall

April 22, 10:00 am–6:00 pm
Paul Robeson Gallery, Paul Robeson Campus Center

May 10–23, 2012
Graphic Design Senior Portfolio Exhibition
Annual show displaying works to be included in the professional portfolios of graphic designers in the Department of Arts, Culture & Media.

Jan. 17–May 2, 2012
The Wicked Twin: Fame and Notoriety
This exhibition will focus on the ways of art, how a designer deals with fame and infamy, celebrity, culture, current social issues, imitations of celebrities, and attempts to secure at least 15 minutes in the spotlight.

May 19–23, 2012
Graphic Design Senior Portfolio Exhibition
Annual show displaying works to be included in the professional portfolios of graphic designers in the Department of Arts, Culture & Media.

www.newark.rutgers.edu/arts