

RUTGERS NEWARK CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR REQUIREMENTS
NEW PROGRAM BEGINNING FALL 2008 (32 Units total Requirement – 9 credits of required courses, plus 8 credits of Research Methods and Statistics, and 15 credits of electives)

▲ REQUIRED COURSES: (Three 3-unit courses. It is recommended that CJ majors complete 101, 102, and 103 before taking other CJ courses.)

- 202:101 Crime and Crime Analysis (New Course)
- 202:102 Criminology (Formerly 303)
- 202:103 Introduction to Criminal Justice (Formerly 201)

▲ Transition students: CJ 101 is first offered in Fall, 2008. Students who began the program prior to than, may substitute CJ 203, 204, or 304 and still meet degree requirements. Courses taken under prior numbers will still be credited.

▲ ELECTIVE COURSES (At least five of these 3-unit courses)

- 202:202 Gender, Crime, and Justice
- 202:203 Police and Society (Title Change)
- 202:204 Corrections
- 202:310 Case Processing, the Law and the Courts (Formerly 305)
- 202:311 Constitutional Issues in Criminal Justice (Formerly 302)
- 202:312 Comparative CJ Systems (Formerly 403)
- 202:321 Environmental Criminology (New Course)
- 202:322 Business and Crime (New Course)
- 202:323 Cybercrime (New Course)
- 202:324 Violent Crime (New Course)
- 202:331 Delinquency and Juvenile Justice (Formerly 304)
- 202:332 Juvenile Gangs and Co-Offending (New Course)
- 202:333 Race and Crime (New Course)
- 202:334 Organized Crime (New Course)

- 202:341Q Community Corrections (Formerly 306)
- 202:342Q Contemporary Policing (Formerly 401)
- 202:343Q White-collar Crime (Formerly 301)
- 202:344Q Crime in Different Cultures (Formerly 307 & Title Change)
- 202:345Q Criminal Justice: Ethical and Philosophical Foundations (Formerly 404)

▲ RESEARCH METHODS AND STATISTICS: (Two 4-credit courses, taken in order, fall to spring)

- 202:301 Criminal Justice Research Methods
- 202:302 Data Analysis in Criminal Justice (Prerequisites: 301 and the basic undergraduate math requirement)